

paint by numbers

Embrace the prettiness of spring with one of the new makeup palettes. They come in daring shades and chic neutrals (and make great Mother's Day gifts, too).

What are your beauty tricks and go-to products? Let us know and we could feature you in a future issue: besthealthmag@rd.com.

1. This custom palette from Canadian company Pandora's Makeup Box, shown in Blush, has four pinky powders to use as either blushes or eyeshadows: Spring Pink (A), Brilliant Rose (B), Papaya (C) and Starlight (D). ($66, 16 g)

2. Revlon CustomEyes Shadow & Liner palette in Party Pops contains one playful powder eyeliner (in deep purple) and four daring eyeshadows (in teal, lilac, lavender and peach). ($13, 5.67 g)

3. Quo Beauty in Bloom

palette contains six eye-popping shadow trios, creating a rainbow of 18 hues to mix and match. ($25, 15 g)

4. Gosh Eye Shadow Palette in Nude Passion No. 001 has six soft and neutral shades that are perfect for everyday wear. ($20, 4.3 g)

5. Stila All Over Shimmer Duo presents cult-favourite eyeshadow shade Kitten in two finishes for use as a highlighter, eyeshadow or décolleté powder. ($29, 5.3 g)

6. Maybelline Expert Wear Perfect Pastels eyeshadow quad in Seashore Frost has a mod colour-blocked look in cool-toned shades. ($9, 4.8 g) —Jennifer Masseau

For where to buy, see page 124.