

ROUNDUP

A jolt from the blue

This season, take a cue from the models on Stella McCartney's fall/winter runway, where they sported spellbinding sapphire lashes. It's a bold look, to be sure, but framing your eyes in vivid cerulean will instantly make them look bigger and more youthful. Simply curl your lashes, then apply two to three coats on both your top and bottom fringe for a gaze that's as bright as it is
