THE LOOK: NATURAL WONDER

For cottage ease, go golden with a low-maintenance sunless tanner, which can easily outlast a long weekend. Prepare to bare with silky skin: Try a citrusy sugar body scrub, which exfoliates with both naturally occurring fruit enzymes as well as its fine-grit texture, paying special attention to scruffy elbows, knees and ankles. Post-self-tanner application, extend the life of your faux bronze by keeping your body well-moisturized. For faster, no-commitment results, opt for a wash-off hint of sun-kissed caramel shimmer, applied to your décolleté, shoulders and limbs. THE GETAWAY GEAR: Burt's Bees Mango and Orange Sugar Scrub, $15. Biotherm Self-Tanning Gel, $30. Lise Watier Gold Liquid Silk Body and Legs, $30. Cake Beauty Milk Made Nourishing Body Butter, $24. Pandora's Makeup Box Lipstick in Tutti Fruitti, $16.
